Description

Please create a class in QT where each data can be fetched from the database using it. The return value types should fit according to the data being fetched.
There should be a range of functions from simple one data item return to array of data items.

git clone <https://github.com/sonds1/QPushButton>

I find this tutorial really helpful for designing QT buttons. It explains how to create custom QT widgets using the example of PushButtons.

<https://youtube.com/playlist?list=PLw1hBEGKfRbmG382qraR41aavCOeiciWN&si=lbZImtpcaUivc1y7>

Also, have a look at this playlist. It's not big, just 5 videos, and it explains how to design QToolBar, QScrollBar, QMenu, and how to add a title to a floating menu. If I'm not mistaken, it is written for the most up-to-date QT version

Create a user registration functionality through the creation of User class

User should not define its role at user registration. Role should be set by Administrator/ProductOwner/ScrumMaster. I will add new tasks for user management option in project management ui
